INFORMATION

This memorandum is to update you on the progress in forming the Sunshine Reform Task Force (Task Force). The deadline for providing nominations to the Task Force has closed, and the work of screening all of the applicants will begin this week. As indicated in our earlier memo on the process, we expect to have the screening process completed by the end of May. The drawing of names has been scheduled for 11 a.m. on Thursday, May 25. The location has not yet been identified, but will be noticed and this information will be provided to all nominees.

The names submitted by organizations that were invited to self-select their Task Force representative, as well as the Academic representative selected by the City Manager, are in the following table:

Organization	Nominee
United Neighborhoods of SCC	Ken Podgorsek, Executive Director
Strong Neighborhoods Initiative PAC	Ed Rast, Member
SJ/SV Chamber of Commerce	To be determined (awaiting nominee)
Silicon Valley Leadership Group	Dan Pulcrano, Member
League of Women Voters	Bobbie Fischler, President
South Bay Labor Council	Phaedra Ellis-Lamkins, Executive Officer
News Media	Susan Goldberg, Mercury News Executive Editor
Academic	Judy Nadler, Senior Fellow Markkula Center for Applied Ethics,

The list of nominees from Councilmembers, as well as the names provided by the organizations that are self-selecting their representatives, are in the attached table. The names of the nominees will be posted on the Brown Act Board and on the City Clerk's web site by the end of the week.

TOM MANHEIM
Public Outreach Manager
